STAT

Thank you for your letter of 20 April offering your services to this Agency.

It is regretted that nothing suitable for you has occurred since you first submitted your application, and a current survey of existing vacancies indicates that we still have no vacancy where you could be appropriately placed. It is not possible to predict at this time whether such a vacancy might occur in the future, but we will continue to retain your application for consideration should something turn up. In such case we will contact you.

Your interest in the Agency is appreciated.

Sincerely,

R. H. HILLENKOTTER
Rear Admiral, USN
Director of Central Intelligence
